

REMARKS

Claims 100-119 are pending in the application. Claims 100-119 stand rejected. Claims 100-103, 106, 110-113 and 116 are amended herein. No new matter is added. The Applicant respectfully requests consideration of the following remarks and allowance of the claims.

35 U.S.C. § 112 Rejection

Claims 110-119 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to point out and distinctly claim the patentable subject matter. In particular, the Office action asserts that it is unclear what is intended by “interacting” and unclear as to how a response can be created without a request (Office action, p. 2 line 19 – p.3 line 2).

Claims 100 and 110 are amended herein to clarify that a response is not created without a request. Rather, claims 100 and 110 require transferring a new request (a first communication account request) in response to a specific action (a transaction between a first end user and the web site). Moreover, claims 101-103, 106, 111-113, and 116 are amended to clarify the antecedent basis. Reconsideration of claims 110-119 in view 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, is respectfully requested.

Allowable Subject Matter

The Examiner's indication of allowable subject matter is appreciated. In view of the present amendment and remarks, the Applicant respectfully solicits allowance of claims in their present form.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above remarks, the Applicant submits that the claims in their present form are allowable. The Applicant further submits that there are numerous additional reasons in support of patentability, but that such reasons are moot in light of the above remarks and are omitted in the interests of brevity. No estoppel is intended and no estoppel should apply to assertions in the recent Office Action that are not refuted herein. The Applicant respectfully requests allowance of the claims at the Examiner's earliest convenience.

The Applicant believes no fees are due with respect to this filing. However, should the Office determine fees are necessary, the Office is authorized to charge Deposit Account No. 21-0765 accordingly.

Respectfully submitted,
